LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ YOUNG DRIVER CAUSES CRASH

Athens police say a woman left her vehicle running with her two small children inside while she went into the Walgreens pharmacy on W. Madison Ave. Sunday evening. While she was inside, her two-year-old daughter shifted the gear from park to reverse and the car backed up and struck another vehicle in the parking lot. No one was injured and damage was minor. The incident prompted police to remind motorists not to leave small children in a parked vehicle.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ The Athens Chamber of Commerce will be hiring a new tourism director. Those interested in applying for the job can either mail or hand-deliver their resume to #13 North Jackson Street, Athens, TN 37303.

✓ The United Way's annual Day of Caring will take place tomorrow, June 3. Volunteers will spend the day doing projects for United Way partner agencies.

✓ Athens Utilities Board and the Athens Public Works Department announce that Railroad Avenue in Athens will be closed from 7:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. tomorrow between Congress Parkway and Haines Road for installation of wastewater services and repair of manholes.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ Al-Qaida has confirmed that its No. 3 official, Mustafa al-Yazid, has been killed along with his wife, three daughters, and a grandchild — perhaps one of the most severe blows to the terror movement since the U.S. campaign against al-Qaida began. A U.S. official says al-Yazid is believed to have died in a U.S. missile strike sometime in the past two weeks.

◆ Former Vice President Al Gore and his wife, Tipper, are separating after 40 years of marriage. According to an e-mail circulated among the couple's associates on Tuesday, the Gores said it was "a mutual decision made together following a process of long and careful consideration." The Gores reportedly were telling friends they "grew apart" after 40 years of marriage and there was no affair involved.

◆ The 40-year-old son of former ABC News anchor Ted Koppel, Andrew Koppel, was found dead in an apartment in upper Manhattan. Police did not give the cause of death, but did say he had spent hours drinking heavily with a man he met at a bar.

◆ Now that its "top kill" approach failed, BP is trying another temporary fix to stop the leaking oil well in the Gulf and siphon the oil to the surface by sawing through the leaking pipe and putting a cap on it. BP's stock prices fell steeply on Tuesday.

The Carnival Comes To Town

The annual Moofest Carnival is up and running in the green space downtown where the Athens Supply Company was formerly located. The trucks carrying the rides and attractions rolled into town

Sunday. Workers installed the equipment Monday and Tuesday, and the Carnival opened Tuesday evening. It will be open each evening this week and all day on Saturday for the National MooFest. Be sure to bring the kids and a big appetite too!

Obituaries

John "Jake" Sherlin, age 87, of Athens died Sunday at his home. He was retired from Beaunit Corporation in Etowah and from Davidson Textron in Athens. He serviced in the Army during World War II. Funeral services will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Smith Funeral Home, with visitation from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Raymond Zone Johnston, age 88, of Athens died last Friday. He was a barber for 60 years. A memorial service will be conducted at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Athens Church of Christ, with visitation from 6 to 7 p.m. at the church. Smith Funeral Home is in charge.

TODAY IN HISTORY - June 2
