LOCAL AND AREA NEWS

◆ TVA HIT WITH $11.5 MILLION FINE

TVA has been slapped with an $11.5 million fine for the coal ash spill at the Kingston Steam Plant. The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation issued the penalty because of violations of the state's Water Quality and Solid Waste Disposal Acts. Payments of the fine will be spread over the next three years.

◆ TODAY IS APPLICATION DEADLINE

Today is the deadline for applying for the position of Athens School Director. So far, three people have submitted applications. Among them is Robert Greene, former director of schools in Meigs County and currently Tennessee's deputy commissioner of education. The Athens School Board hopes to interview the applicants on June 29th and 30th.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

√ Athens Community Theater presents "Evening With the Stars VIII, a Community Showcase of Talent," this Friday at 7:30 p.m. at The Arts Center, 320 N. White St., in Athens. Robert Burleson will perform original classical guitar works. This year's show will feature solo singers, duet performers, and a special trio consisting of sisters Jen and Lindsey Nunley with Liz Thigpen. Tickets are $10 for adults and $8 for students.

NATIONAL-WORLD NEWS

◆ Rescue crews in Arkansas have found a 20th victim of a flash flood that swept through a popular campground, but they continued searching because authorities don't know if the body belonged to the last person thought to be missing. Dozens of people were feared missing after the pre-dawn Friday flood, but authorities on Sunday narrowed their search to just one person known to have been camping at the Albert Pike Recreation Area. They said many others first feared missing were camping in other parts of the state, without cell phone coverage.

◆ Stocks climbed and then fell on Monday following signs that Europe's economy might not be badly hurt by its debt crisis. The Dow Jones Industrials Average closed at 10,190.89; down 20.18.

◆ BP unveiled a plan on Monday to vastly increase the amount of oil it is capturing from its blown-out well in the Gulf of Mexico. Meanwhile, the White House says BP appears to be willing to set up a victims' compensation fund as demanded by President Obama.

◆ Singer and sausage-maker Jimmy Dean has died at his home in Virginia at age 81. His biggest hit record was "Big Bad John."

◆ Starbucks says it will now offer unlimited free Wi-Fi service.

TODAY IN HISTORY - JUNE 15

1520 - Martin Luther was excommunicated from the Catholic Church because Luther denied the supremacy of the pope and declared that church officials could make mistakes. He had also criticized the Catholic Church's practice of selling indulgences as a means of pardoning sinners from part of the penalty for their sins.

1775 - George Washington was appointed commander-in-chief of the Continental Army.

1910 - Orchestra leader David Rose was born. His biggest hit records were "Holiday For Strings" and "The Stripper".

1937 - Country singer Waylon Jennings was born. His biggest records were "Luckenbach, Texas" and "Mamas Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up To Be Cowboys".

1969 - "Hee Haw" premiered on CBS-TV starring Roy Clark, Buck Owens, Grandpa Jones, and others.
