◆ SCHOOL BOARD TO PICK GREENE

The former Meigs County School Superintendent, Robert Greene, apparently will be the new Athens City Schools director. The Athens School Board has called a meeting for Friday to give formal approval to hiring Greene, who says he could begin work in two to six weeks. Greene is currently Tennessee's deputy commissioner of education.

TODAY IN HISTORY - June 24

1541 - Spanish conquistador Francisco de Ortellana fought a famous battle with warrior women in Brazil. The women were described as white and tall with long braided hair wound around their heads. They resembled the fighting women of the ancient Greek legend, the Amazons, so much so, that the river where the battle took place has been called the Amazon ever since.

1895 - Heavyweight boxing champ Jack Dempsey was born.

1948 - Russia blockaded the western zones of Berlin, obstructing all rail, water, and highway routes. This set the stage for the "Berlin Airlift" in which the Western allies flew in supplies to meet the needs of more than 2-million people in West Berlin. The blockade was lifted 11 months later.

1975 - An Eastern Airlines Boeing 727 enroute from New Orleans to New York crashed at Kennedy International Airport, killing 114 people.
