STATE AND LOCAL NEWS

◆ DRUG STORE ROBBERS NABBED

Two suspects have been arrested in Crossville in connection with several drug store robberies in Athens and other cities in the Southeast. Athens Police Detective Heith Willis says Detective Scott Webb, along with a Chattanooga detective and an FBI agent interviewed the two suspects and got statements from them about their involvement in numerous robbery cases in several states. The investigation is ongoing and the names of the suspects have not yet been released.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ There's yet another plan for dealing with the nation's debt. The so-called bipartisan "Gang of Six" senators says they are nearing agreement on a major plan to cut the deficit by more than $4 trillion over the coming decade. President Obama has given the plan his tentative endorsement.

◆ The space shuttle Atlantis left the International Space Station for the very last time Tuesday, heading home to end its 30-year career as a vessel for transporting astronauts to and from orbit. Atlantis is scheduled to touchdown in Florida early Thursday morning.

◆ The Dow Jones Industrial Average had a big rebound on Tuesday. The Dow closed at 12,587.42; up 202.26 points.

◆ In West Palm Beach, Florida, a 17-year-old boy is accused of posting a Facebook invitation to a house party, killing his parents with a hammer, and then hosting dozens of people at the party while their bodies were locked in the master bedroom.

◆ The Japanese government says the crippled tsunami and earthquake damaged nuclear plant has reached stability more than four months since the disaster. Officials say radiation around the plant has shown a "sufficient decrease" from peak levels measured soon after the disaster and the plant is on track for a cold shutdown.
