◆ POLICE CONDUCT HOLIDAY CRACKDOWN

Officers with the McMinn County Sheriff's Office, the Tennessee Highway Patrol, and all the county's municipalities joined forces over the Thanksgiving weekend to crack down on drunk driving, driving without seat belts, and underage alcohol sales. Sheriff Joe Guy says a total of 228 citations were issued and 19 people were arrested. Three of the arrests were for felony drug offenses. Sheriff Guy says an undercover informant who is 20 years old tried to purchase beer at stores and bars in the county. Guy says all 26 of the stores performed a proper ID check and refused to sell. Of the six bar checks, one bar sold alcohol to the 20-year-old. That bar was cited for underage alcohol sale. Sheriff Guy praised the cooperation of all the participating agencies.

More Flood Photos

The photo below was taken by the Athens Codes Enforcement Officer, Gayle Pettitt, on Monday as she went to inspect the city's cemeteries to make sure there was no major damage to graves due to the flooding. The graves were wet, but there was no damage. This photo was taken at Hammonds Cemetery.

The photo to the right was sent to us by Leslie Clary. It shows the "lakeside" view from Ingleside School. The total rainfall in Athens measured 4.5 inches.

Obituaries

Barbara Florence Bryan, age 68, of Ten Mile died Monday at her home. Graveside services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Meadowfork Baptist Church Cemetery, with visitation from 4 to 7 p.m. Wednesday at Ziegler Funeral Home.

The Hope of Bethlehem

Saturday, Dec. 10th 7:00pm & Sunday, Dec. 11th 3:00pm

A motor vehicle accident sent an Englewood teenager to the hospital Tuesday. James Cochran was driving his late 1990's Chevrolet Z-71 pickup truck northbound on County Raod 500 when he went off the right side of the road, overcorrected and then went off the left side of the road and went up an enmarkment and hit a tree. The vehicle then overturned and came to rest back on the right side of the road. Cochran, age 18, was transported to Athens Regional Medical Center by AMR. The Englewood Rural Fire Department and the Etowah Rescue Squad provided aid at the scene of the wreck. (Photo by Jay Thomson)
