State & Local News

- ◆ MISUSE CLOSES CITY RECYCLE CENTER
The Athens Recycle Center on Rocky Mount Road is closed until next Monday, May 12th, due to misuse by the public. Public Works Department officials say people have been dumping regular household garbage and even cat litter into the recycling bins. Those bins are being cleaned this week, new signs and a surveillance system are being installed, and residents will once again be required to separate their recycling material. When the Recycle Center opens next Monday, it will accept only paper, plastic 1-7, cardboard, glass, tin cans, electronics, used cooking oil, rechargeable batteries, car and boat batteries, oil filters, used motor oil, scrap metal, and aluminum cans. The Recycle Center does NOT accept any item other than those listed above.
- ◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:
 - ✓ The National Association of Letter Carriers will hold their annual Stamp Out Hunger food drive this Saturday. Place non-perishable food items in a plastic bag and leave them next to your mailbox. All items collected will be delivered to a local food bank.
 - ✓ There will be a cash mob sale benefiting the E. G. Fisher Public Library in the Community Room today from 9:30 A.M.-2:30 P.M. or later.

National & International News

- ◆ The Beverly Hills Hotel, which is owned by Brunei's Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, has been the target of a growing Hollywood boycott since Brunei has embraced muslim Sharia Law. Adultery, abortion and same-sex relationships are serious offenses punishable by flogging and stoning under the new law. The Beverly Hills city council's unanimous resolution calls for the tiny Southeast Asian nation to change its laws or divest its ownership of the iconic property. In protest, a growing number of Hollywood groups have relocated events traditionally held at the Beverly Hills Hotel.
- ◆ The DEA has broadened its national crackdown on synthetic drug manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. Federal agents have served hundreds of search and arrest warrants in at least 25 states.
- ◆ Over the next month, two of President Obama's closest first-term advisers, former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and ex-Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner, will spill insider details on how the administration handled the early days of the Great Recession. Also revealed will be the White House's cautious response to the Syrian civil war and the genesis of clandestine talks with Iran.
- ◆ NC State House Speaker Thom Tillis, a North Carolina Republican, won the Senate primary and will take on Democratic Senator Kay Hagan in November.

CAR MISSES DEER, BUT HIT BY ANOTHER CAR

Joshua Moss was headed east on County Road 802 this past Monday when he swerved to miss some deer that ran across the road in front of him. He was clipped in the rear by a Cadillac, which then went airborne and hit a power pole, pulling it literally out of the ground. The driver of the Caddy, Aaron Walker, was taken to Starr Regional Center of Etowah with a possible broken arm. (Photo by Jay Thomson)
