LOCAL & AREA NEWS

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ Tennessee's annual Free Fishing Day will be tomorrow. Anyone may fish free without a license in the state's public waters, including the lake at the Athens Regional Park.
- ✓ The United Way of McMinn and Meigs Counties held its annual Day of Caring on Thursday. About 200 volunteers did various jobs at United Way partner agencies, including painting, cleaning, and weeding. The photo shows Leslie Skidmore from Citizens National Bank pulling weeds at The Hope Center.

- ✓ The annual Chilhowee Shrine Club Rodeo will be presented tonight and Saturday night at the Athens Regional Park. The event is sponsored by L&M Motors and the stock contractor is H-Bar-M. One of the featured bulls will be Bo-Ram, the Bucking Bull of the Year and the grandson of "Bodacious." The rodeo will feature bull riding, barrel racing, stick horse racing, and mutton bustin'. The rodeo starts at 8 p.m. each night.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ In a village near the group's spiritual home in northeast Nigeria, forty-five people were killed by suspected Boko Haram gunmen pretending to be preachers. The Islamic insurgents hoodwinked locals into congregating before opening fire on the crowd. Boko Haram is the same group that kidnapped nearly 300 schoolgirls.
- ◆ Sylvia Burwell has been confirmed by the Senate as the nation's new Secretary of Health and Human Services. Burwell will have to act quickly to head off more Obamacare insurance chaos this fall. Burwell had served as President Obama's budget director.
- ◆ Royal Canadian Mounted Police combed the streets and woods of Moncton, New Brunswick, in search of a man suspected of killing three officers in the deadliest attack on their ranks in nearly a decade. The suspect is armed with high-powered long firearms.
- ◆ MEIGS COUNTY MAN DIES FROM GUNSHOT
The Meigs County Sheriff's Office says a man accidentally shot and killed himself while driving his car Wednesday afternoon. James "Tony" McKenzie had a carry permit. He was driving north on Highway 58 when somehow his gun discharged, shooting him in the upper leg. He pulled over to the side of the road. Witnesses called 911, but he died of blood loss before emergency responders arrived. Detectives say it was a freak accident.
