STATE & LOCAL NEWS

MEET THE NEW MISS TENNESSEE

The newly-crowned Miss Tennessee says her win is a dream come true. Miss Lexington, Caty Davis, won this year's contest last Saturday night at the Carl Perkins Civic Center in Jackson. Davis was last year's runner-up. Caty said that talking to former Miss Tennessee, Grace Burgess, helped her in this year's competition. Davis clinched the swimsuit competition on Friday night. She says she is excited to start her year of service, implement her platform statewide, and then compete in the Miss America Pageant.

National & World News

- ◆ According to the FBI, a teenage girl from Charlotte, North Carolina, has been found alive in Georgia after she went missing more than a year ago. A 31-year-old man is now in custody.
- ◆ Two Marines were seriously burned Sunday night in a ground flash fire at Marine Corps Air Station Miramar in California. The fire erupted while they were performing routine aircraft maintenance on a fighter jet.
- ◆ A Massachusetts man has been found guilty of second-degree murder for the killing of 2-year-old Bella Bond, who was nicknamed "Baby Doe" after her unidentified body washed up on a Boston area beach in June 2015. The defendant, Michael McCarthy, was dating the victim's mother, Rachelle Bond, at the time of the girl's death.
