TODAY IN HISTORY - OCTOBER 6th

1846 - Inventor George Westinghouse was born. He invented such things as the gas meter and air brakes for railroad trains.

1914 - Norwegian adventurer Thor Heyerdahl was born. He became famous for traveling from Peru to eastern Polynesia in a balsawood raft.

1927 - "The Jazz Singer" starring Al Jolson opened in New York City. It was the first full-length talking motion picture. However, there were only 291 spoken words in the film.

1962 - Robert Goulet finally stepped out of the role of Sir Lancelot after singing and acting the part since 1960 in the fabulously successful Broadway musical "Camelot." It also starred Richard Burton as King Arthur and Julie Andrews as Queen Guenevere.

1973 - The Yom Kippur War began when Egypt and Syria attacked Israel. Israel won the war 19 days later.
