◆ SANTA MADE IT TO THE LIBRARY

Despite an extremely busy schedule, Santa was able to stop by the E.G. Fisher Public Library last Thursday. Santa and his elf, Misty, appeared at the Library Search for Santa event. Peyton Eastman, program director at the library, sent us this photo of a little boy following "reindeer" tracks in the library.

National & World News

- ◆ The top leadership of the Miss America Organization, including CEO Sam Haskell, have been suspended after e-mails surfaced showing them disparaging the appearance, intellect, and sex lives of former Miss Americas.
- ◆ The state of Ohio has passed a law prohibiting doctors from performing abortions based on a diagnosis of Down syndrome.
- ◆ The wind and rain got the best of the Christmas tree in Nashville's Public Square. The tree toppled early Saturday morning. Officials said it would take too long to put the tree back up and redecorate it, so it went to the chopper instead.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ The City of Athens Police Department will present a Church Safety Seminar on Saturday, January 13th, at 8 a.m. at the Athens Movie Palace, 1436 Decatur Pike. The seminar will be led by Athens police officers, including Lieutenant Jason Garren who is an accredited instructor for Active Shooter Training. The seminar is intended to equip members of the public with information about active shooter situations, as well as what can be done to mitigate possible occurrences at churches, schools, and businesses. Church leadership and clergy are especially invited to attend this free event. For more information, call 744-2730.
- ✓ The E.G. Fisher Public Library will have a Family Fort Building time on Wednesday, Dec. 27th, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Bring your children by anytime and build a family fort in the children's area. Flashlights & blankets will be provided.
