A Snowy Day in November

The Athens area awoke to snow on the ground and car tops Tuesday morning. It was enough for the schools to call off classes. At the Morning Fax/WYXI studio we measured 1/2 inch of snow. As you can see, it was enough to cover the ground and this car parked in our driveway.

Nation's Largest Milk Producer Files Bankruptcy

Dean Foods Co., the parent company of Mayfield Dairy based in Athens, reported Tuesday that it has filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection. Dean Foods, based in Dallas, Texas, said it may sell its business to the Dairy Farmers of America. Dean Foods reports that it lost money in eight of its last 10 quarters and in seven of its last eight quarters it has reported declining sales. The CEO, Eric Berigause, said the company will continue to operate normally while it reorganizes. Dean Foods purchased Mayfield Dairy in Athens in 1990. Mayfield Dairy was founded in 1910 by T.B. Mayfield, Jr.

Civic Saturday Coming Up

Civic Saturday will take place this Saturday, November 16th, from 11 a.m. to 12 noon at the ServPro offices on S. White Street in Downtown Athens. Civic Saturday is sponsored by the Main Street Athens Thrive Team. The event will celebrate the voices of our youth, ages 12-18. Everyone is invited to come hear young leaders speak about what their community means to them. A special "civic sermon" will be delivered by Natalie Leonesio, an 8th-grader at Athens City Middle School. The event will be facilitated by Alay Mistry, a senior at McMinn High School. Refreshments will be provided. There will be a children's activity corner for little ones.
