Local & Area News

◆ MAN CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTED MURDER

Athens police have arrested and charged a man with attempted murder after officers say he assaulted two women at a home. Around 1:15 p.m. this past Monday, police officers were dispatched to the area of Caesar Street on a disturbance call. Dispatch said a man had been seen hitting a woman in the yard, and gunshots were heard in the area. Police found the scene to be a home in the 100 block of Ray Street. Once on scene, officers say they found Jamar Williams moving frantically around a car in the yard. Officers say they determined that Williams had allegedly physically assaulted two women in the yard, one being his girlfriend. Williams is accused of firing a weapon in the yard during the incident. He was charged with attempted first degree murder, aggravated assault, and reckless endangerment.

◆ ATHENS POLICE CLOSE A DRUG HOUSE

The Athens police department has closed a drug house on Bud Street. Athens police and members of the drug task force raided the house earlier this week and discovered meth, prescription pills, and drug paraphernalia. They arrested James Moore. Police Chief Cliff Couch says the same house was the target of a search warrant for drug activity three months ago. Officers observed dangerous and dilapidated conditions in the house. The Athens Code Enforcement officer determined the house was unfit for habitation and boarded it up.

Athens Loses a Community Pillar

A man known as "Buddy" died this week. Buddy Liner was a native of Athens and served in the U.S. Air Force on a B-29 bomber. On his return to Athens, he served as Director of Admissions at Tennessee Wesleyan College. He worked in the insurance field for over 50 years at Liner and Associates and Athens Insurance Agency. He was known for his fundraising for local projects, including the Boy Scouts, United Way, the McMinn County Senior Center, and the Athens 4th of July fireworks show. He was chairman of the Athens Utilities Board for 21 years and served on the Athens City Board of Education for 19 years. He was named Athens "Man of the Year," and was Grand Marshal of the Jimmy Liner Memorial Christmas Parade. Buddy, we will miss you!

TODAY IN HISTORY - JANUARY 10th

1757 - American statesman Alexander Hamilton was born on the island of Nevis in the Caribbean. He moved to the American Colonies in 1772 and later served in President George Washington's cabinet as the nation's first Secretary of the Treasury. He was killed in a pistol duel with his political foe, Aaron Burr, in 1804.

1878 - For the first time, milk was delivered in glass bottles by Alexander Campbell, in New York. Up to that time, moo juice had been laded out of a container by the milkman, right into the customer's own container.

1924 - Singer Don Cherry was born. His hit records included "Band Of Gold" and "Thinking Of You." For a time, he was also a professional golfer.

1935 - Aviation pioneer Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly across the Pacific Ocean from Hawaii to California. Two years later, she attempted a round-the-world flight, but was lost at sea.

1946 - Country singer Naomi Judd was born. She and her daughter, Wynonna, had many hit records including "Mama He's Crazy," "Grandpa, Tell Me 'Bout The Good Ole Days," and "Love Is Alive."

1964 - U.S. Surgeon General Luther Terry issued the first government report saying smoking may be hazardous to one's health.

1973 - Owners of American League baseball teams voted to adopt the designated-hitter rule.

1977 - France set off an international uproar by releasing Abu Daoud, a Palestinian suspected of involvement in the massacre of Israeli athletes at the 1972 Munich Olympics.
