Virus Cases Jump in McMinn

The latest figures from the TN Department of Health show there have now been 65 confirmed cases of the coronavirus in McMinn County. That's a big jump from the 14 cases reported on Sunday. Only four of the patients have recovered. Life Care Center of Athens is now reporting that 54 residents have tested positive for coronavirus. McMinn County has now tested 921 people, more than any surrounding county. Meigs County has 6 cases, with 3 recoveries. Monroe County reports 15 cases, 10 recoveries and one death. Statewide, there have been 9,918 cases, with 184 deaths.

MORE VIRUS-RELATED NEWS

- ✓ The E.G. Fisher Public Library is planning to reopen to the public on May 26th. The dropbox will be reopened for returns on May 16th. When the library reopens, they will require all patrons to wear a face covering that covers their nose and mouth. The library will operate with limited hours (9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday) and will only allow patrons to check out 10 items each. Also, the number of computers available will be limited.
- ✓ The Good Faith Clinic will conduct drive through REFILL ONLY clinics for existing patients until further notice. Patients should remain in their vehicle and provide a written list of medications to refill with name and date of birth. The Clinic will be open from 2:30 to 4 p.m. today, Tuesday.

Church at the Drive-In

Athens First Baptist Church held "drive-in" services at the Midway Drive-In Theater on Highway 30 east this past Sunday. More than 120 vehicles were there. People stayed in their vehicles and listened to the service on their car radios via a low-powered FM transmitter. A flatbed trailer was set up so worshipers could see the pastor, the singers, and other participants.
