"COMMON" BUCKEYE BUTTERFLY

It may be called a "common" Buckeye Butterfly, but there's nothing common about its beauty. Jennifer Hardison took this photo at Athens Regional Park.

TODAY IN HISTORY - SEPTEMBER 9th

- 1754 - British seaman William Bligh was born. He became famous after a mutiny took place on his ship, "The Bounty." He and 18 members of his crew were forced off the ship and drifted 3,600 miles in the South Pacific before being rescued.
- 1776 - The Second Continental Congress officially changed the new American nation's name from "United Colonies" to "United States."
- 1836 - Abraham Lincoln received his license to practice law
- 1896 - The first successful heart surgery was performed in Germany on a patient who had been stabbed in the heart during a fight.
- 1926 - The National Broadcasting Company (NBC) was organized as a broadcasting service of the Radio Corporation of America.
- 1941 - Singer Otis Redding was born. His biggest hit record was "Sittin' On The Dock of the Bay." He died in a plane crash in 1967.
- 1956 - On this Sunday night, 54,000,000 viewers turned their TV dials to CBS to see and hear 21-year-old singer Elvis 'The Pelvis' Presley. Elvis sang Don't Be Cruel and Ready Teddy. One female Elvis fan described him as, "One big hunk of forbidden fruit." Elvis got the largest fee to that date for appearing on The Ed Sullivan Show; $50,000.
- 1979 - Tracy Austin became the youngest player to win the U.S. Open women's tennis title. She was 16 years old.
- 1986 - Ted Turner presented the first of his colorized films on his superstation WTBS in Atlanta, GA. The first Hollywood classic to get the new look was Yankee Doodle Dandy. Some people were opposed to the colorization process, where color is added to black-and-white movies. They felt the originals should be pristine and that any change interferes with the original creativity.
