E.G. Fisher Public Library Highlights Black History Month, Family Events in February

E.G. Fisher Public Library has announced a full schedule of February programs combining Black History Month observances with family-friendly and community-focused events.

The month opens with Take Your Child to the Library Day on Saturday, Feb. 7, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., featuring activity stations and opportunities for families to explore library resources. On Friday, Feb. 13, the Teen Advisory Board will host an all-day bake sale from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., while supplies last, with proceeds supporting teen programs.

In recognition of Black History Month and the 2026 theme, A Century of Black History Commemorations, the library will feature book displays, local history banners, and a community reflection wall throughout February.

The Noon Book Club will meet Wednesday, Feb. 11, at noon to discuss The Narrative of Frederick Douglass, led by Frank Walker of First Baptist Church of Cleveland. A light lunch will be provided by the Friends of the Library. Also planned is Voices Remembered, a Black History Month essay contest open to all ages, with submissions due by noon on Monday, March 16. Selected essays will be displayed in the library, and winners will be invited to read during a community reflection event.

The month concludes with Community Reflection: Honoring a Century of Black History on Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 6 p.m., featuring readings from selected essay winners and an open, guided discussion for community members. Light refreshments will be provided.

Library officials invite residents of all ages to participate in the February events. Full details are available at fisherlibrary.org, on the library's social media pages, or by calling 423-745-7782.
