Trash & Treasure Sale Raises Over $23,000 for Living Heritage Museum

The annual Trash & Treasure Sale at the McMinn County Living Heritage Museum drew strong crowds April 22–25, raising more than $23,000 to support the museum's programs and preservation efforts.

A highlight of the event came Friday during a live remote broadcast by WYXI Radio, where personalities Cousin Mark Lefler and Brother Barry Sullivan interviewed museum staff and interacted with shoppers throughout the day. Museum Director Brett King and Guild President Terry Kratz were among those featured during the broadcast.

Shoppers filled both the museum basement and annex locations in search of bargains, while several attendees also won prizes, including museum memberships, tickets to Soaky Mountain Waterpark, and passes to upcoming performances at The Arts Center.

Organizers described the event as a successful and busy weekend, with proceeds benefiting ongoing operations.
